

The Daily Courant.

Wednesday, April 8. 1713.

From the Paris Gazette, dated April 8.

Naples, March 7.

TH E Council dell' Inconfidenza have lately assembled often, and have issued divers Orders for searching for suspected Persons, none of whom however can be found. Besides the Guards placed here on the Shore, to take Notice of all who come higher by Sea, others are placed at Pozzuolo and Castellamare. Some Persons have been taken up within these few Days; and as these Imprisonments, which for the most part have appeared to be without Cause, have raised a general Discontent, 'tis given out that the last were done by Order of the Vicariat, not of the Council dell' Inconfidenza. The Viceroy went the 4th Instant to Baya, to view a Bastion which is fallen down towards the Sea for want of necessary Reparations; and for rebuilding it the Undertakers demand 30000 Crowns. The Chamber of Finances have declared that they have no Fund for this Expence, much less for augmenting the Regiment of Horse of the Marquis Roma, to 1000 Men, to be divided into two; and besides this the Court of Vienna have demanded 400000 Crowns for the pressing Occasions of the Archduke. Upon the Intelligence given to that Court that great Sums might be raised by the Sale of the Governments in this Kingdom, blank Commissions have been sent hither for 150 Persons, though there be not above 100 Places to be filled up. The Saint Leopold Man of War and the Tartans which were to carry Corn to Barcelona, are returned to Baya, whence they are not to sail again till they have new Order, and some Vessels are arrived from Catalonia laden with Household Goods belonging to the Italian Ministers of the Archduchess's Court, which makes it judged that she is shortly to leave that Country.

From the Amst. Gazette, dated April 11.

Warsaw, March 24. The Court have received new Confirmation of, what has been published about the Misfortunes of the King of Sweden, who is carried towards Thessalonica or Adrianople, tho' his Majesty was very much indisposed at the time of his Departure, by reason of his Wounds and his great Fatigues: King Stanislaus who was at Jassi, was to be conducted to Bender: The Palatine of Kiovia was in the Quarter of the Cham of the Tartars, who had secured his Person by Order from the Porte. Count Sapieha, Starost of Bobruisk, who has written to Court to solicit his Pardon of the King, promises in that Case to come and make his Submission with 3 or 4000 Poles, all disposed to serve his Majesty faithfully. Letters from Lemberg of the 18th of this Month, which are newly arrived, relate that they had received Advice there, that the King of Sweden died 4 Days after his Departure from Bender, between Jassi and the Danube; but 'twas not known whether of his Wounds, or of some Accident that happened on the Road: Though this News has been written from other Parts, we suspend our Belief of it till we have more certain Accounts. Achmet Bashaw and Murza Bashaw, Envoys of the Grand Signior to the King of Poland, were expected at Lemberg, in order to treat of prolonging the Peace, and maintaining a good Understanding with his Majesty and the Republick.

Vienna, March 29. We have received Letters from Bender of the 26th of February, which say the King of Sweden died on the Road between the Danube and Jassi. We are also assured, that an Express which left Sniatin the 7th of this Month, confirms this News. But there being different Advices from the Frontiers of Turkey, which say his Majesty was arrived at Adrianople, where he was very well received by the Sultan, we must wait for more positive Accounts. M. Bielinski, Marshal of the Crown, died the 24th in this City; 'tis believed that the Palatine of Mazovia, Ambassador of the King and the Republick at the Ottoman Porte, will have his Commission. The Bishop of Livonia, who is to go to reside at the Court of Vienna, on the Part of the King and the Republick, set out the 24th. The Bishop of Cajavia is nominated by his Majesty and the Republick, to be Plenipotentiary at the Congress at Utrecht.

From the Amst. Gazette, dated April 11.

Warsaw, March 28. The Embassy which the Grand Signior has sent hither, has hindered dred the King's Departure for Saxony; and his Majesty has recalled divers absent Senators, to receive the Ministers of the Ottoman Porte. 'Tis said those Ambassadors are commissioned to acknowledge his Majesty for King of Poland, and to solicit for King Stanislaus a Pension out of the Revenues of the Republick: That they are to inform themselves, whether the Republick will concern themselves in the War, if the Turks should begin against the Muscovites; and whether there are still any Muscovite Troops in this Country. We have Advice from the Frontier, that Field-Marshal Czeremethof having decamped from Smolensko, had passed the River Donin with the Muscovite Cavalry, which were followed by the Infantry; and all those Troops were to joyn near Olof, to be the nearer to observe the Motions of the Turks. Count Sapieha, Starost of Bobruiski, has obtained his Pardon of the King.

Famous Drops for Hypochondriack Melancholly:

Which effectually cure on the spot, by rectifying the stomach and Blood, cleansing them from all Impurities, and giving a new Turn to their Ferment, attenuating all viscous tenacious Humours (which make the Head heavy, clog the Spirits, confuse the Mind, and cause the deepest Melancholly, with direful Views and black Reflections) comforting the Brain and Nerves, composing the hurried Thoughts and introducing bright lively Ideas and pleasant Briskness, instead of dismal Apprehensions and dark Incumbrance of the Soul, setting the Intellectuals at Liberty to act with Courage, Serenity and steady Cheerfulness, and causing a visible diffusive Joy to reign in the Room of uneasy Doubts, Fears, &c. for which they may be truly esteem'd infallible. Price 3s. 6d. a Bottle, with Directions. Sold only at Mr. Bell's Bookfeller at the Cross-Key and Bible in Cornhill near the Royal-Exchange.

The Delightful Chymical Liqueur, for the Breath,

Teeth, and Gums. Which in a Moment makes the most Offensive Breath smell delicately Fine and Charming, and in very little time infallibly cures, so that an offensive Breath will not return; It certainly makes the blackest and most foul Teeth perfectly White, clean and beautiful to a Miracle; Cures the Scurvy in the Gums, tho' never so inveterate, making the Flesh grow again, when almost Eaten away, and infallibly, softens loose Teeth to Admiration, even in Old People, who too often sadly think their Age to be the Occasion: In short, for delightfully Perfuming, and quickly curing an ill-scented Breath, for presently making the blackest Teeth most excellently White, certainly softening them when Loose, effectually preserving them from Rotting or Decaying, and assuredly curing the Scurvy in the Gums, it has not its Equal in the Universe, as Abundance of the Nobility and Gentry throughout the Kingdom have Experienced. Is Sold at Mr. Poy's Toy-Shop at the Angel and Crown in St. Paul's Church-Yard, next Cheap-side at 2s. 6d. a Bottle with Directions.

LONDON Printed by Sam. Buckley, at the Dolphin in Little-Britain; and Sold by A. Muldwin in Warwick-Lane.
